QUIRIN PRIVATBANK EQUITY RESEARCH

Q3 2020: Better than expected

On October 22, Intershop published a better than expected set of Q3 2020 figures and continued its performance, which we have already seen in H1 2020. Revenues were down -4.1% yoy and 1.3% better than we expected. EBIT came in at EUR 0.10m, up from -0.9m last year and 8.6% better than we anticipated. The cost reductions had a strong effect here. For example, marketing and sales expenses were reduced by 15% to EUR 5.5m, research and development expenses declined by 24% to EUR 2.7m. As a result, Intershop reported the second quarter in a row with positive earnings, which in our view, proves this turnaround might be sustainable. Due to this favorable development, we confirm our target price of EUR 3.35 based on our DCF model and confirm our Hold rating.

Positive development of cloud & subscription revenues

Cloud and subscription revenues rose by a total of 14% to EUR 5.3m by the end of September (previous year: EUR 4.6m). Incoming orders for cloud solutions (new and existing customers) amounted to EUR 11.3m in the first nine months, which represents an increase by 95% (previous year: EUR 5.8m). Cloud ARR (annual recurring revenues) rose by 30% to EUR 8.4m (previous year: EUR 6.4m).

Strong balance sheet

The company's equity ratio remained at a high 56%. Cash and cash equivalents were up 46% on year end 2019 to EUR 11.3m. Cash flow from operations improved to EUR 3.4m compared to EUR -1.7m in the previous year.

Guidance 2020

Intershop also confirmed its guidance for FY 2020 and expects revenues to increase slightly. EBIT is assumed to be slightly positive. Both in line with our expectations.
